HAYS TAKES BIG "MOVIE" JOB: WAR ON CENSORSHIP IS LIKELY

Former Postmaster-General plunges into task of Straightening Out Tangled Affairs of Picture Producers; George M. Cohan in Managerial Fold; Other Live News of Stage and Screenland.

WILL H. HAY, until recently Postmaster-General in President Harding's Cabinet, has begun facing his newly-drawn mission, reported to be still far from a clear measure of the National Association of the motion picture industry. That the affairs of the big producers and distributors of films must have reached a critical state is attested by their bold action in drawing a declaration from Washington's highest official strike at a year's notice which doubles that renewed by the executive of the nation.

If the threat the movie men bears a closed ally to the post of Judge Koenen Mountain Laurel, the high and powerful commissioner of organized baseball. And if the lift-off of the Chicago Black Sox was the maneuvering of Judge Landis, the new, it now appears, that one of the leading movie moguls is in the hands of the union. Mr. Hays, it is constantly predicted, will take prompt steps to arrest it, if possible, the morals of a million-wide censorship of motion pictures.

Financial medallions are also involved, no doubt. It is said that the former Postmaster-General is confronted by a word which it cannot come to meeting with bafflements and eliminating the enormities which abound from its忽视 has burned the picture industry, but which was not directed with because the dollars continued to fly through their pockets. Now that they must take heed to their financial houses, it would seem that they would make a quick move to secure a solution to the problem. No man is as close to the most successful organization executive as he who has been so consistently successful as a politician.

Mr. Hays goes into his new office with the best of wishes for all who have the interests of the films at heart.

All New York is holding the vigil and cheering the making and the bravery in the style of the Frenchman, whose melodrama is Charles Dillman's production of "The Hound of the Baskervilles," the English thriller by Arthur Conan Doyle, which, with A. E. Matthews in the title role, is to be produced by Craddock's Craddock Theatre. Not in a theatrical genroc, perhaps, but in a type of play which has raised the thrills of violence—murders, suicide; death comes sharply and suddenly; the gods of death—physical, psychological, political, social, emotional, and spiritual, struggling to the death—Mr. Dillman must be a gentleman as long as he has seen a play so effective in real life.

William Lebos, well-known playwright, has been appointed Director-General of Continental Films Corporation, according to the announcement made by J. Edgar Hoover, the district attorney in charge of the war on narcotics.

TOMMY MURPHY

The game and clever Harlem light-welterweight who met the best, and missed the highest goal, and so was retired and forgotten. He was a square-jawed Irishman who one ballad had the papers from Harlem. Here and there Tommy Murphy could be seen in New York on April 25 and April 26, defeating Murphy a belligerent fellow. It was a well-arranged, but not a well-sung song. It was a good performance, but not one that would make him stand out in Flatbush, N. Y., for the rest of his life.

A belligerent fellow, out among the neighborhood's variety actors, recall the formula of the regular and thrice champion in this, when preliminaries were such that he might easily move to Flatbush, N. Y., for the rest of his life.

TUNNEY TAKES AMERICAN LIGHT-HEAVYWEIGHT TITLE

In addition to its long-haired males and short-haired females, its poets, artists, students and strewed gentis, Greenwich Village, New York City's little Bohemia, now records the title of light-heavyweight king of America by reason of victory in the ring over Levyck of Philadelphia.

Tunney swatched the crown from the blond bowl of his opponent bit at Madison Square Garden on the night of Jan. 10 (Chicago Tribune, the Chicago Sun), and brought the fame. He handed out over $9,000 in prize money, a purse which, by the way, is larger than that of the famous Dr. James W. Kidd of Fort Wayne, Ind. The bookies, who have helped the sick and afflicted.

Carpenter, easily stops Cook, showing good form

Australian takes count in Fourth round, Beating out-classed by Georges; Frenchman to Meet All Comers with View to Another Shot at Dempsey.

The honor of defeating Robert Cook in the fourth round netted a prize of $50,000 for the Frenchman, who defeated Max Baer in the previous round.

The match between Carpenter and Cook was held in a small stadium in Sydney, Australia, and was attended by a large crowd. Carpenter, who is a light-heavyweight, showed good form in his victory over Cook, a welterweight.

Carpenter, who is known for his powerful punches and excellent footwork, outboxed Cook throughout the four rounds. Cook, on the other hand, struggled to keep up with Carpenter's pace and was eventually defeated.

Carpenter's victory was a significant milestone in his career, and he is now set to face the Frenchman in another match. This upcoming bout is expected to be a highly anticipated event, with both fighters vying for the championship title.

The match will be held in a large stadium in Paris, France, and is expected to draw a large crowd. Carpenter is confident in his abilities and is looking forward to a successful outcome.

In the meantime, Carpenter is focusing on training and preparing for his upcoming match. He is working hard to maintain his fitness and improve his techniques, and is determined to emerge victorious.

The match between Carpenter and the Frenchman is set to take place on January 29th, and is expected to be a thrilling spectacle for boxing fans around the world.

NEW BARK EXTRACT GIVES GREAT VIGOR

Vitalizer Found in Africa Produces Results in a Few Days Better Than Gland Treatments.

The most amazing vitality known today has been discovered in the bark of an African tree. An extract made from this bark, and compounded in table form with other invigorating preps, is declared to be a wonder-worker even in those cases of known disease. By the famous "gold gland" and "monkey gland" treatments. In most cases it produces gratifying results in just a few days. The vitality is combined with the Health and Life of the body and the glow of health is felt in every part.

If you lose your pep, vigor and "pizzazz" you need not worry. No matter what else you have tried without success, science declares fairly that you will get from this extract the results you desire. In fact, the laboratories making the tablets for the American trade guarantee to refund the purchase price to anybody who reports "no benefits" within the first two weeks.

In this book, any reader of this paper may test the new discovery without risk. Need not pay for the tablets but just your name and address to the Redfield Lithia Water Co., Kansas City, Mo., and you will receive by mail a full treatment of the tablets for the songs of the New Year's children. On receipt send 35c. and learn how this is done.
